About China Institute

Founded in 1926 by a group of American and Chinese educators, China Institute is the oldest educational and cultural organization in the United States focused on advancing a deeper understanding of China through programs in education, culture, business and art in the belief that cross-cultural understanding strengthens our global community.

About China Institute Gallery

Established in 1966 at China Institute, China Institute Gallery is the only nonprofit exhibition space in the United States exclusively devoted to the display of Chinese art.

The Gallery organizes two exhibitions a year of Chinese art from the Neolithic to present day, motivated by the belief that art can be a vehicle for greater understanding of China's diverse art, cultures, and people.
