TERMS & CONDITIONS

Statement of Non-Discrimination: China Institute Early School Year admits students of any race, color, religion, national, and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religious, national, or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, and other school administered programs.

Statement of Immunization: All children at the China Institute Early School Year must be immunized and must continue to receive all appropriate immunizations as required by New York State and New York City law. You will be required to submit a medical form and written proof of the required immunizations prior to your child's enrollment.

Statement of Application: A completed application is not a contract to enroll at China Institute Early School Year. Due to limited number of available seats, the Admission's Committee closes admissions when necessary and allocates appointments to ensure a diverse pool of applicants. All China Institute Early School Year admission materials for the academic year must be submitted while admissions are open in order for applications to be reviewed and considered for the admission process.

I have read & accept the China Institute Early School Year terms & conditions applied to the application *
